

APRIL 2017

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Vince J. Otsuka

Aloha, members! We are pleased to announce a new partnership with Hawaii National Guard FCU. This partnership will bring an additional two branches, 1,937 members and $18 million in assets.

Starting in May their members will become part of our ohana under a co-branding agreement. They will be called Hawaii National Guard Credit Union, a Division of Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union. HNGCU will offer APFCU products, and members of both credit unions will be able to use APFCU or co-branded locations.

Please visit our website for more news and events coming this Spring.

Mahalo!

ANOTHER ANNUAL MEETING SUCCESS!

Mahalo to the nearly 400 members who attended our 79th Annual Meeting March 15 at McCoy Pavilion!

We hope you enjoyed the bento and refreshments and had a chance to chat with Aloha Pacific FCU execs and the Board of Directors.

Mahalo also to City Council Chair Ron Menor, our guest speaker.

Three members of the Board were confirmed at the meeting. They are Geminiano "Toy" Arre Jr., Darwin Hamamoto and Sam Moku. No balloting

Members gathered in the McCoy pavilion for the Annual Meeting.

Vince Otsuka, president and CEO of Aloha Pacific FCU, congratulates member Elienne Yoshida, who won the grand prize of the evening, a $1,000 Hawaiian Airlines gift card.

was necessary this year because only these three incumbents applied for the three seats that were up for election.

APFCU member Elienne Yoshida won the grand prize of the evening, a $1,000 Hawaiian Airlines gift card. Fifty other door prizes worth at least $25 each and two 32-inch TVs were awarded that evening. Congratulations to all!
