Tom Cesar Promoted to Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer of Aloha Pacific FCU

HONOLULU – Tom Cesar has been promoted to senior vice president and chief information officer of Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union.

Cesar, who joined APFCU's executive management team in June 2020 as vice president and director of information technology, has more than 30 years of experience in IT and business solutions. He most recently was senior vice president and technology director at American Savings Bank.

Previously he held information technology positions at First Hawaiian Bank, HawaiiUSA Federal Credit Union, Bank of Hawaii and Hawaii National Bank. He also had been a business development manager at Sprint Hawaii and was the owner/principal consultant of CIO Hawaii, a Honolulu technology solutions company.

At Aloha Pacific FCU, Cesar is responsible for all aspects of IT management and control, including information security and network infrastructure, key core processors, third-party relationships, business applications, systems and technology, and production.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious City and County of Honolulu employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii, with membership totaling more than 63,000 and assets of more than $1 billion.

Aloha Pacific FCU has 11 branches – seven on Oahu, one in Kahului, Maui, and one in Henderson, Las Vegas. Kekaha Credit Union on Kauai is a division of APFCU. In addition, after a 2019 merger, APFCU has a branch at the stevedores/cargo handlers company McCabe, Hamilton & Renny that is accessible to McCabe employees.

Membership is open to employees of more than 2,300 Select Employee Groups (SEGs) and their immediate families. All Maui County employees and members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association (HGEA) are automatically eligible to join Aloha Pacific. Other SEGs include Hawaii Pacific Health, Costco and Foodland. All residents of Kauai are also eligible to join. For additional information, please visit alohapacific.com.
